

New Feed Specialist Appointed.

Norvite is delighted to announce the appointment of Mike Dow as a Feed Specialist from 1st July 2010. Mike joins the company to strengthen the existing sales team and support its growing business in the Aberdeenshire area. He will work closely with Aberdeenshire Ruminant Feeds Specialist, Ross Williams.

Mike lives in Elgin with his wife and family but he grew up in Aberdeenshire and gained an NCA in Agriculture from Clinterty College. Following completion of his studies, Mike was employed on the College Farm and made many farming contacts during the following nine years.

Mike has worked on pig units at Dickmontlaw, Arbroath and at Cowley, Rothienorman, where he gained management responsibility. In 2000 he moved to the renowned dairy unit at Plewlands. When the milking herd was sold, Mike moved to their beef unit and he has extensive experience in suckler cow management and bringing cattle out for show and sale.

Norvite's Technical Manager, David McClelland said, on welcoming Mike Dow to the team, "Mike has a genuine interest in livestock and brings a wealth of practical experience to us. He is well respected in farming circles for his diligence and conscientiousness and I am confident that this change in career will be a successful one, utilising his many skills."
